Subject: International Auto Show is on Itinerary for January, 2015!

The global automotive community descends upon our nation's Automobile Design and Manufacturing kingpin, Detroit, for the North American International Auto Show at Cobo Center, and the Grand Traverse County Senior Center Network travel alliance is on the docket to attend! Tickets are still available for this annual spectacular where visitors gain unprecedented access to the industry's top leaders and thinkers, there to accompany the latest in vehicle premieres – over 500 vehicles on display, representing the most innovative designs in the world. Leave early morning and return by 11:00 p.m., the same day, January 20, 2015. Cost is a very reasonable $118.50 per person (incl. $6.50 for insurance). Do not miss the most prestigious automotive showcase in the western hemisphere! Call the Senior Center for more information, 231-922-4911.
