Subject: Trump the Winter Blues – Play Bridge!

Start the New Year with a new activity – one that challenges the mind, requires finesse, and keen personal interaction, yet also engages participants in uplifting diversion and conversation.

Contract Bridge is extremely popular, especially among retirees, as it incorporates elements of chance, tactical skill within randomness, partial knowledge and restricted communication during play. According to Ericca Hovie, Program Coordinator, “Newcomers to bridge and those who have not played for 20 years, enjoy this format for learning and playing this intriguing game.”

For only $20 per person, plus $5/book, the Senior Center of Traverse City offers a session of 6 classes, instructed by Shirley Delaney, on Mondays, beginning January 5, 2014; beginners meet from 12:00 – 2:30 p.m., intermediate players, 2:30 – 5:00 p.m. Advance registration is required; please call, 231-922-4911.
