Subject: Painting in the Park

Learn to paint a contemporary Sailboats at Sunset painting at the upcoming Painting in the Park event at the Senior Center in Traverse City. Class will begin at 5:00 p.m. on Wednesday, August 19.

“This class is perfect for someone who wants to explore art but doesn’t want to make a serious commitment – it’s all about fun,” says Ericca Hovie, Senior Center Network Program Coordinator. For just $25 per person, participants can have a fun and relaxing late afternoon with friends and are allowed to bring their own beer and wine (no glass). There is a discount for Senior Center Network members. No painting experience is necessary and each person will get to keep their finished art piece. All supplies are provided.

Each class is led by Jackie Freeman, MA, BFA who holds university degrees in fine art (painting) and adult learning. She taught art at a residential facility and led educational tours at the world-famous Torpedo Factory Art Center in Old Town Alexandria, Virginia. Jackie has taught workshops since 1988. As a contributing editor to Northern Express she covered the art beat and her artwork has been featured in Traverse the magazine.

Advance registration required and limited. Register in person at the Senior Center Network, located at 801 E. Front Street, Traverse City. Questions? Call 231-922-4911.
