Subject: Senior Center to Host Climate Change Presentation

On Tuesday, March 22 at 3:30 p.m., the Senior Center at 801 E. Front Street in Traverse City will host a discussion with Dr. Lisa Del Buono about climate change and how the Citizens' Climate Lobby is working to create the political will for a stable planet. Said Ericca Hovie, Senior Center Program Coordinator, "We are honored to have Dr. Del Buono present this information. Her passion, knowledge, and tireless work on this subject are apparent in everything she does."

Citizens Climate Lobby is an international non-partisan grassroots organization that empowers everyday citizens of all ages to engage with our democracy. The advisory board is composed of members such as former Secretary of State George Schultz, who advocates for carbon-free and dividend legislation as the best first step toward addressing climate change.
