Subject: Growing up in Kingsley

Kingsley – History matters because it connects us to specific times, places and events that were significant milestones in our past. At the most basic level, it maintains our heritage. How many times have you wished you had gotten information from parents or grandparents before it was no longer possible? We often wish that we had taped their stories or at least taken notes of the important events in their lives.

Perhaps one of your relatives helped settle Kingsley or you may have stories to share about growing up in Kingsley. It is your chance to share what you know on Wednesday, March 18, 10:30 a.m., in Kingsley, 115 E. Blair Street. Bring photos, documents and stories and be a part of preserving Kingsley's history. Kingsley High School seniors will conduct the interviews of participants.

An optional lunch is available at noon with a $3 suggested donation for those 60 and over; $5 for all others.

Advanced reservation for this program is required by Monday, March 16. For more information or to register, email dmikowski@grandtraverse.org or call for registrations at 231-922-4911.
